

There's No Cross Up In Heaven

Robert Ritter

R.R.

1. There's a cross up - on a hill - top where Je - sus was led, Where the
2. There's a tomb with - in a gar - den where Je - sus did lay, Where the
3. There's a ta - ble in His pre - sence that is spread for a feast, Where the nails pierced His hands and the thorns tore His head, Where the si - lence of death seemed to hold its dark sway, Where the bless - ed saints ga - ther, from the great - est to least To re - noon-tide brought the dark-ness that cov-ered the sky, Where the cru - el crowds stone was rolled backward and the an - gel appeared Say - ing "He is now mem-ber the Sav - ior and the suff'ring He bore 'Til He comes back to gathered just to watch a Man die. ri - sen, He is no longer here." There's no cross up in Heaven, for the vict'ry's been take us to that beau-ti-ful shore.

Chorus

won, There's no death o-ver Jordan, on-ly life in the Son, There's no darkness in Glory where the Light e-ver shines, There's no trouble in my spirit, for Je-sus is mine.